ORDER

This 21st day of August, 2020, upon consideration of Plaintiff Robert Austin's Amended Complaint (ECF No. 11), it is ORDERED that:

1. The Amended Complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii), for the reasons in the Court's Memorandum. Mr. Austin may file a second amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order following the guidelines set forth in the Court's accompanying Memorandum. If Austin fails to follow the Court's guidelines, any further dismissal of any claim or dismissal of any Defendant for failure to comply with Rule 8, may be with prejudice. Upon the filing of a second amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

2. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Mr. Austin a blank copy of this Court's current standard form to be used by a self-represented litigant filing an employment discrimination action bearing the above-captioned civil action number. Austin may use this form to file his second amended complaint if he chooses to do so. This form is also available on the Court's website, <http://www.paed.uscourts.gov/documents/forms/frmcempf.pdf>.

3. If Austin does not wish to amend and instead intends to stand on his Amended Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled “Notice to Stand on Amended Complaint,” and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) (“If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate.” (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding “that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs’ decision not to replead those claims” when the district court “expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims”).

4. If Austin fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Austin intends to stand on his Amended Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.¹ See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff’s intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).
